Pro Bono Publico!

IF YOU LOVE YOUR COUNTRY, encourage Home Productions. Why will you send abroad for wretchedly spurious articles, when you can have the good and true and beautiful of Oregon material and Oregon workmanship close at your very doors!

Why impoverish your country and its mechanics by the calculations of Prejudice, or by parsimonious misdirection?

SATURDAY MORNING, AUG 29 1863

Cheating by False Pretenses

Confederate Democrats are constantly talking of their desire to maintain "the Constitution as it is" and profess to be alarmed lest in some respects its provisions should be modified. In their Conventions, however, they throw off the mask of their holy regard for it, and proclaim their belief that it ought to be changed. That which nominated Vallandigham, was in favor of obtaining "such amendments to the Federal Constitution as experience has proved to be necessary to maintain that instrument in the spirit and meaning intended by its founders, and to provide against future convulsions and wars,"—in other words the Constitution is not good enough for rebels and their sympathizers though it suits the friends and protectors of the Government. In the same spirit the recent Democratic Convention in Illinois demanded a National Convention "to secure by constitutional amendments, such rights to the several States and the people thereof as honor and justice demand." Does not this imply that the Constitution as it is denies rights which are demanded by justice and honor? Whose rights are thus infringed? Certainly not those of patriotic and loyal citizens. These are satisfied and do not complain and the only subjects of sympathy are the insurgent traitors, before whom these Northern demagogues and rebels at heart would bow down and worship for the sake of building up a new Democratic party, devoted to Southern interests and giving office and power to them. They hate with all their souls the present Constitution, and are striving to crush it, let them be watched

Party Obligations

The San Francisco nominating Convention required several pledges from all candidates, and among them, is one to support its nominees in any event. Mere politicians agree to this, and thus sacrificing personal judgment and freedom make themselves machines and puppets in the hands of skilful managers, one of the candidates, Horace Hawes, was not quite willing to become a slave to such dictation, and after giving his unqualified assent to all the political questions at issue, very sensibly replied to that concerning his support of every nominee without regard to any thing save that the Convention had put him on the ticket, as follows

"No. I will support for the office only such men as, in my judgment, are fit for it. Should the nominees of the Convention be men of that character, they will receive my support. Should they be otherwise—disloyal, dishonest, or wholly incapable, I shall vote against them, preach against them and pray against them. It may be said that it is not to be presumed that the choice of the Convention will fall upon men wholly unfit for the positions which they aspire to. Very well, then I will pledge myself, with this reserve, that the Convention will not nominate men of that character. At all times, and especially at the present important interests both of this city and San Mateo county, will be committed to the charge of their Senators and Representatives, and it is of the very last importance that the judicial offices should be filled by men of the highest integrity and legal discernment. I cannot pledge myself to support men for either legislative or judicial offices unless they be fit for them whoever may be nominated. A nomination by the Union Convention, or any other body of intellectual and worthy citizens, would recommend the candidate, but would not secure my vote or influence in his behalf, irrespective of qualifications. With me the public interest and the public safety are paramount.—My allegiance to my country is supremely obligatory upon me. It is superior to all other human obligations. I should deem myself a traitor indeed, if I should sacrifice my country to party—if I should pledge myself to a course of action which might betray her most sacred interests. The pledge that is exacted from me is, I presume, to be a pledge without reserve that is to support anybody and everybody, however incompetent, whom the Convention may nominate. The ready disposition to sacrifice all considerations of the public good to subserve party interests, which such a pledge implies, while it might procure me a nomination to office, ought to exclude me from the suffrages of my fellow citizens. Some are so eager for office that they declare themselves ready to support the devil himself if the Convention should nominate him. This is compound treason. It is treason against the country and treason against God.

No doubt Satan has been a very successful party leader. He led off a large party among the hosts of Heaven, it is said, and his adherents are not few among the inhabitants of earth. Nevertheless he will finally leave all his followers in limbo. I would not support him, or any who would thus wittingly aid to get him into official power, though he or they were nominated by a convention of angels.—Any test which may or necessarily must exclude good and fit men from office, is inimical to good government. Such is the character of pledges which obligate voters to cast their suffrages or influence in favor of bad men under any circumstances or which does not leave them free to elect the best."

A SIGNIFICANT REMARK CONCERNING THE REBEL CONSCRIPTION.—The Raleigh, (N. C.) Progress says:

"There is nothing in the proclamation of the President calling for more troops at which the country can complain for he is only exercising the authority given him by Congress, and as we have said the condition of affairs is such that we must have more troops or abandon the cause."

REBEL GRUMBLING AT DEFEAT.—We take no pleasure in fault finding, and have seldom felt disposed to criticise the war policy of the Administration but we confess that we are impressed with the justice of the following views of the Mobile Register, in reference to the causes which have led to the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson.

The surrender of Port Hudson rests upon Yankee veracity at New Orleans. Had we not expected its fall as a sequence to the abominable farce at Vicksburg we should not believe it on such authority. We suppose, however, that it is true and that it has succumbed to the same unpardonable lapse—the infantile neglect to provision it for a siege of even decent duration. Nothing has happened in this whole war—in which God knows, there has been official imbecility and blunders enough which our brave soldiers have been obliged to redeem with their blood—that appears to us so profoundly disgraceful, reprehensible and injurious as the fall of two such positions as Vicksburg and Port Hudson, for the reasons given. We speak not now of the importance of the places as strategic points lost, for we believe they have been generally over estimated in this respect and there are powerful elements of compensation yet unseen and unfelt but still to be developed. But we allude to the injury to our cause wrought in the world's estimate of the common sense and sagacity which guides the destinies of this people in the great struggle. Here were two positions upon which, by common consent the two belligerents openly staked their energies and their valor.

The North made its solemn vow that it would take them at all hazards of life and treasure. President Davis took the trouble to leave Richmond and travel to Mississippi and there assure the people of his own State that he would defend Vicksburg if it took one hundred thousand men to accomplish it. In this trial of endurance and energy the North has won and the South has lost. And how lost? By the amazing stupidity and supineness that neglected upon a full twelve months notice, to put food into the place to sustain the garrison. What possible excuse have we to offer to the enlightened tribunal of nations that are watching this struggle and measuring the capacities of the combatants. None on earth. We had the time to do it the means to do it, the power to do it and we did not do it. This is the whole story, and it stands nakedly before the world to the disgrace of our military administration. Our brave men, after proving their ability to hold the posts against every assault were just starved out, and forced to surrender their persons, their arms, their batteries and their position, to a foe who had shown that he could not subdue them by force. It is a lamentable spectacle, an odious theme, which we dismiss with disgust to the proper responsibility.—Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist.

FROM THE UPPER COUNTRY.—The following items are taken from the Golden Age

FROM BEAVER HEAD.—From a gentleman just in from the upper country, we learn that the miners in that district are doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances, water being scarce. A number of prospecting parties are out in every direction, and our informant thinks other diggings will be discovered this fall fully as rich or richer than any yet found. A large party was organizing for the purpose of going to Yellowstone river some 230 miles in a north-easterly direction from Beaver Head, to prospect. It is thought that rich and extensive diggings will be found on that stream, as previous parties who have prospected there, but who were unable to remain on account of the hostility of the Crow Indians, state that they got good prospects on that stream and its tributaries. Another party had gone to the head waters of Snake river to prospect, and felt sanguine of striking something big. Provisions were not high considering the distance of transportation.

BOON HELM AT LARGE.—We are informed, by a gentleman just in from Florence that the above noted individual is again at large having got out on a writ of habeas corpus. Upon his release he made tracks for the Boise country.

FROM ELK CITY.—Mr L Bacon, Elk City expressman, informs us that the American Ditch Co are progressing rapidly with their ditch, and will probably have it completed by the close of next month. The miners who have water on their claims continue to take out remunerative pay. No further tidings of the missing man Mr Andrews, whom we mentioned in our last issue as having been killed as was supposed, by Indians. Mr B thinks there is no doubt but what he was murdered by the same party of Snakes that attacked Holt and Wright's party on the Meadows.—Mr J Davis, the man wounded with a spear, in the breast, in the attack on this party was lying in a very critical condition, and fears were entertained for his recovery.

PRIVATEERS IN THE PACIFIC.—Our correspondents in England inform us that certain parties in that most neutral of kingdoms have armed privateers to cruise against our commerce in the Pacific. We are aware that the Administration has already taken steps to protect our harbors on the Pacific, but we hope they will go still further and place such a naval force there as will punish in the most summary manner the piratical crafts which may dare attempt any assaults upon our shipping in that ocean. The plates for several monitors have been sent to California, but these vessels will merely serve as protection for our harbors. We need, beside these, vessels heavily armed and plated, and sailing rapidly, so that the English pirates who anticipate an easy prey in the Pacific may meet with a reception which will deter any more experiments of the kind. Our commerce must be protected and it is the duty of the Administration to act in the matter without delay. We must not be at the mercy of every English adventurer, with no principles and plenty of money, who may take a fancy to privateering.—New York Herald, July 25th

IRON IN THE CONFEDERATE STATES.—The Richmond Enquirer of a recent date contains an order from Gen. Cooper, Jeff Davis' Adjutant General, directing the seizure, under the impressment law passed by the rebel Congress of all the iron within the limits of the Confederacy. The order details the method of procedure at length and states that the iron taken is needed for use in repairing railroads and their rolling stock, and also in the Confederate arsenals.

THE BROTHER JONATHAN.—This steamer left San Francisco on Thursday morning and may be expected here to-morrow evening. She will bring later news from the East, which we hope to receive in time for publication in our next issue.

GRANT AND BANKS.—The friendly feeling existing between Generals Banks and Grant is illustrated in the fact that General Grant, at a certain crisis in his operations invited General Banks to come up the river and join him. "Tell Banks," said Gen Grant, "there will be no quarrel between us about rank."

Terrific Bombardment of Forts Sumter, Wagner and Gregg.

Capt. Rodgers of the Navy Killed

Lee's Army Retreating to Richmond.

Rosecrans Marching on Chattanooga in Three Divisions.

NEW YORK, August 22.—The Herald has the following, dated Headquarters Army of the Potomac, August 22. Information from different sources leads to the belief that the rebels are leaving our front and going to Richmond. Deserters from Lee's army say the late movements of troops at Fredericksburg was only a ruse to cover the real object of Lee which is to hold his men southward via Gordonsville. Day before yesterday large bodies of rebel cavalry marched toward the Rappahannock driving in our pickets. They came up boldly and deployed in line of battle. Immediately all the corps along the river were put in motion and under arms, and in this position they remained until morning when the enemy had withdrawn. A cavalry reconnoissance was then made which went as far as Culpepper but found no enemy, on the contrary, they obtained such information as leads to the belief that the whole rebel force had left in the direction of Gordonsville.

A complete panic prevails in Richmond to obtain greenbacks. Many dealers will take no other money for what they sell. The Enquirer pitches into the Jew proclivities of Benjamin the rebel Secretary of War, [illegible] shed.

The Army of the Cumberland has marched on Chattanooga in three divisions.

CHICAGO, Aug 22.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says Gen Rosecrans has been authorized to mount a whole division and to arm them with Sharpe's or send them other cavalry or horses to add to the mounted force then raised a body of from 3000 to 5000 regular cavalry.—The advantage to be gained by this organization cannot be over estimated.

LOUISVILLE, Aug 22.—The Nashville Union says information of a reliable character, confirms previously published reports of the demoralization of Bragg's army. Tennesseeans are especially averse to participating any further in the war. There is great suffering and destitution in North Alabama the people being confined to very scant supplies of flour and vegetables for food. Meat is not to be had except in the smallest quantities and the prospects for the coming winter are dark and dismal. Unless relief is offered the poor, hundreds of them must die of starvation.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 23.—A call has been issued, signed by a number of the most prominent citizens, for a Convention to nominate a legislative ticket in opposition to that presented by the Union Republican Convention.

Second Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, August 23.—A letter dated on board the flag ship Dinsmore, off Charleston, August 18th, says. The attack was commenced day before yesterday morning at daylight, by the siege guns of Gen Gilmore. At [illegible] A M Admiral Dahlgren proceeded on board the Weehawken and with the Ironsides and entire monitor fleet, attacked Forts Wagner and Gregg with great fury, completely silencing Wagner and almost silencing Gregg. The wooden gunboats—seven in number—also joined in the assault and enabled our shore batteries to pour their shot and shell into Fort Sumter. At 10 o'clock the Admiral changed his flag to the Passaic and with the Patapsco proceeded to within 1 400 yards of Sumter, and shelled the sea walls with the rifled guns of those vessels for an hour with marked effect. Sumter fired about fifty return shots doing no damage to the vessels while the walls of Sumter were badly scarred.

Captain John Rogers, of the Catskill, went within one hundred yards of the beach in front of Fort Wagner. After firing a number of shots, a shot from Fort Wagner broke through and a piece of the interior lining struck Rogers, killing him instantly, and also a Paymaster who was standing at his side. These were the only casualties on land or water during six hours' bombardment. The damage done to Sumter can be seen without glasses. The rebels have built a false wall opposite our batteries. It extended to within ten feet of the top of the wall was forty feet high and ten feet thick. This wall is now a mass of ruins, whilst the old wall is broken full of deep holes. The parapets are crushed and ragged and the north-west wall is gapped and cracked down almost to the waters edge.

The harbor and Stono river are full of torpedoes. About twelve of them have been picked up in Stono river. One exploded under the Patapsco, raising her a foot out of the water but doing no damage. No damage was done to any of the vessels during the night. The Admiral and officers are confident of the abilities of the monitors to batter down Sumter. He is, however, inclined to have these vessels saved for the heavy work required after Sumter has fallen, and let the army reduce the fort if possible. The fleet with the exceptions of the Weehawken and Nahant returned at 2 P M. They were required to keep Wagner quiet and prevent the removal of guns. The shore batteries continued firing during the afternoon and night with good effect. The batteries are still at work this morning.

Aug 19.—The Weehawken and the Patapsco are in position to keep Wagner and Gregg quiet. When the Arkansas left the fleet was at its moorings. Gen Gilmore announces that the work thus far has been entirely satisfactory and that Sumter has been damaged greatly. The loss of Capt Rogers is much regretted by the Admiral.

When the Arkansas left at 7 o'clock on the morning of the 19th huge volumes of smoke arose from Fort Sumter from the burning of [illegible]. Officers of the Arkansas believe that the Fort was captured, silenced or entirely destroyed by noon. Her guns replied feebly [illegible] ours. Gregg was entirely silenced but Wagner still held out. The bombardment of Wednesday morning August [illegible] continued as furiously as ever, the Ironsides, the monitors and the shore batteries being engaged.

[illegible] from Savannah say there is nearly a famine in that city.

PHILADELPHIA, August 23.—By the Arkansas the Navy Department received dispatches confirming the above.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—This beautiful and spacious edifice is approaching completion and cannot fail to be the chief architectural ornament of our city. As some weeks must elapse before it can be ready for occupancy its proprietors have wisely hastened the finishing of the large and very commodious vestry room in the basement, which will be used for public worship to-morrow at the usual hour of Divine Service. We congratulate the pastor and the congregation on the great comfort which the change from their former ill ventilated room—so difficult for speaker and so unpleasant to hearer—secures to them and we know that the excellent choir will appreciate the vast gain which is made for them in furnishing a room where their voices can show forth freely their strength, melody and training.

THE ALARM OF FIRE.—An alarm of fire was sounded about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at which our gallant firemen were soon at their engines, and rushed to the woods west of the city close to Smith's ranch and Butler's brewery, where the woods were on fire. At one time it was thought that these places were both in danger, but the arrival of the firmen, who saturated the ground and timber surrounding, kept the fire confined to its first limits.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Andrew J Hunter made his appearance before Recorder McCoy yesterday charged with being drunk and disorderly. Appearances indicating that he was rather a dangerous person while under the influence of the ardent, he was given twenty days to reflect on the error of his ways, in the city boarding house.

William H Colburn, also had imbibed too freely, and was sent to keep Hunter company for four days.

GOLD DUST.—A little over one hundred pounds of the shining dust was brought down on the Julia last evening.

THEATER.—This evening the thrilling drama of the "Last Man," together with the beautiful and favorite comedy of the "Honeymoon," will be performed. The plot of this drama is very interesting, being the story of a monomaniac who is last in everything he undertakes, and who imagines that he will live forever. In his early manhood, he joined a club of twelve, which met once every year. Thirty years passes away, and the old man finds himself in the club room alone, the last man, when he dies. The piece has been some time in preparation, and will no doubt be a great success.

SPENCER HALL.—This excellent female school at Milwaukie, will be re opened on the 22d of September, under the personal care of the accomplished teacher, who has, during the last year, with great success conducted the educational department. OREGON STATE INSANE ASYLUM,
August 28th, 1863

EDITOR OREGONIAN

In your local of this morning, you state that Andrew Hunter, alias Scotty, escaped from the Insane Asylum. You have been misinformed. He was discharged in consequence of his insanity being so slight and his moral tendencies so powerful, that our experience with him taught us the propriety of such cases being dealt with in the State Penitentiary rather than in the State Insane Asylum.

He presents an example of that rare form of insanity, denominated "moral mania," which is now attracting the attention of psychologists, and it is still a matter of dispute amongst "experts" whether such cases should be protected in an Asylum or punished for their crimes or misdemeanors. Being in favor of pursuing the latter course, from my experience in "Scotty's case," I discharged him, somewhat improved, with the confidence that if he should commit some "overt act," he would in the future receive proper punishment in consequence.

Will you please rectify your error, and oblige yours, truly.

DEMOCRATIC VIEW OF SLAVERY.—George B Weston, (democrat,) in a 4th of July address in Belchtown, Mass., spoke of slavery as follows:

"I have seen slavery in every form—on the plantations of the South, on the broad estates of despotic Russia, where one person, Prince Warranguff, before the emancipation act, owned seventy five thousand human beings. He possessed estates in nearly every province of Russia, he owned towns and villages, and the inhabitants likewise. I have seen slavery in its native Africa, in rags and black as midnight, I have seen it in Eastern harems, arrayed in silks and jewels as beautiful as Venus, and as white as Circassia's snows from whence they came! But I can not conscientiously say one word in its favor while I could fill a volume with its horrors."

A number of batchelors over thirty five were drafted in Providence. On being laughed at for not being married, and thereby escaping the draft, they maliciously replied "It is better to serve three years than for life."

COTTER ON THE BRAIN.—Such was the expression we heard a few days since, but when a man makes investments in San Francisco in one of Heuston, Hastings & Co's elegant walking or dress suits, he makes a clear gain of at least fifty per cent on his investment. Heuston, Hastings & Co's stock is the best we know of.

Meeting.—The regular Monthly Meeting of the Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society will be held at the Presbyterian Church Tuesday, August 1st 1863 at [illegible] o'clock P M.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—This beautiful and spacious edifice is approaching completion and cannot fail to be the chief architectural ornament of our city. As some weeks must elapse, before it can be ready for occupancy, its proprietors have wisely hastened the finishing of the large and very commodious vestry room in the basement, which will be used for public worship to morrow, at the usual hour of Divine Service. We congratulate the pastor and the congregation on the great comfort which the change from their former ill-ventilated room—so difficult for speaker and so unpleasant to hearer—secures to them, and we know that the excellent choir will appreciate the vast gain which is made for them in furnishing a room where their voices can show forth freely their strength, melody and training.

THE ALARM OF FIRE.—An alarm of fire was sounded about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at which our gallant firemen were soon at their engines, and rushed to the woods west of the city, close to Smith's ranch and Bottler's brewery, where the woods were on fire. At one time it was thought that these places were both in danger, but the arrival of the firemen, who saturated the ground and timber surrounding, kept the fire confined to its first limits.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Andrew J. Hunter made his appearance before Recorder McCoy yesterday, charged with being drunk and disorderly. Appearances indicating that he was rather a dangerous person while under the influence of the ardent, he was given twenty days to reflect on the error of his ways, in the city boarding house.

William H. Colburn, also, had imbibed too freely, and was sent to keep Hunter company for four days.

GOLD DUST.—A little over one hundred pounds of the shining dust was brought down on the Julia last evening.

THEATER.—This evening the thrilling drama of the "Last Man," together with the beautiful and favorite comedy of the "Honeymoon," will be be performed. The plot of this drama is very interesting, being the story of a monomaniac who is last in everything he undertakes, and who imagines that he will live forever. In his early manhood, he joined a club of twelve, which met once every year. Thirty years passes away, and the old man finds himself in the club room alone, the last man, when he dies. The piece has been some time in preparation, and will no doubt be a great success.

SPENCER HALL.—This excellent female school at Milwaukie, will be re-opened on the 22d of September, under the personal care of the accomplished teacher, who has, during the last year, with great success conducted the educational department. We can safely commend this institution to all parents who desire a place for the education of their daughters, where the comforts and rational pleasures of home shall be blended with instruction, while in all respects, their welfare will be anxiously and kindly provided for.

READ, MOTHERS, READ!—How many a mother has waked up at MIDNIGHT AND FOUND HER CHILD BREATHING HARD ATTENDED WITH PECULIAR WHISTLING OR BARKING COUGH, which would be relieved by the use of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM, and repay a thousand times the cost by having it on hand in time of need, to give relief to the struggling child. Then why delay in procuring a remedy for such a sudden disease, which is CARRYING OFF THOUSANDS OF OUR CHILDREN EVERY YEAR!

EVERY FAMILY should keep this medicine constantly on hand, for old and young should use it for all affections of the throat and lungs.

DENTAL CARDS.—Certificates received by Dr. W. KOEHLER from his former places of residence:

This recommendation is due Dr. W. KOEHLER, a Practical Dentist, for his skill, thorough professional attainments, and complete knowledge of the science of Dentistry. I cheerfully recommend Dr. Koehler to all who may need or desire his professional services. J. S. TITUS, M. D.
Placerville, May 5th, 1860.

I have known Dr. KOEHLER as a practicing Dentist in this place for some time past. He is thoroughly versed in his profession and I would cordially recommend him to those desirous of obtaining the services of an educated and skillful Dentist. JOHN COOKE, M. D.
Placerville, May 5th, 1859.

MOKELUMNE HILL, August 30, 1860.

Having had occasion to employ several operators to construct a set of artificial teeth for me but without having derived any benefit from them, I at last consulted Dr. W. KOEHLER, to whom I gave my case for another trial. He made me a full set of teeth, which I am now wearing with all the comfort and satisfaction desired and I would recommend him to all in need of the services of a skillful dentist. W. McFADDEN, M. Remarkable Cure of Cramps in the Stomach and Bowels.

CINCINNATI, May 31, 1862.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.: Last Winter I was attacked with cramps in the stomach and bowels, which bent me nearly double, and the pains were so great that it prostrated me; I tried your BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA in frequent doses, which relieved me at once, and I felt its influence to the very extremities of my limbs, and have not been troubled with any similar attack since. I have been travelling during the spring in the country, and I came across many who had severe attacks of diarrhœa, and I gave them a few doses of the PAIN PANACEA, which cured them immediately. I also recommended it to a man who had a severe headache, and it gave instant relief by bathing thoroughly with it. J. M. ADAMS.

REDINGTON & CO, 416 and 418 Front street, San Francisco, Sole Agents. aug18dw2w

In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in Jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

The Battle Anthem

By request we republish this magnificent song of freedom that everybody may become familiar with it. In the East it is sung with full and joyous voices at every patriotic gathering, to the tune of the Hallelujah Chorus and we are sure that our readers will be glad to adopt it also as the hearty expression of their love of liberty. Let all learn it

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord,
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword
His truth is marching on.

I have seen him in the watch fires of a hundred circling camps,
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps
His day is marching on

I have read a fiery gospel writ in burnished rows of steel
"As ye deal with my contemners so with you my grace shall deal,
Let the Hero born of woman crush the serpent with his heel,"
Since God is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat
He is sifting out the hearts of men before the judgment seat;
Oh be swift my soul, to answer Him be jubilant, my feet
Our God is marching on

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me
As He died to make men holy let us die to make men free, While God is marching on

"Calf's Head and Pluck."

If I remember rightly I have eaten at Parker's or George Young's a most savory compound, got up by the cuisiniers of those restaurants, and known as "calf's head and pluck"—by the way, not an uncommon Yankee dish. But you should eat of this excellent preparation in camp, seven miles out from the main body, in a cold, dark night, while serving on picket duty. As for instance:

Along our extreme left wing the rebels had latterly made themselves troublesome, and one or two attempts had been made by them to throw across the river, from below Fredericksburg, a portion of their cavalry for reconnoitering purposes, or a raid probably. Orders went forth to push our picket line farther down in that direction, to look for the marauders, and a few hundred men marched, with three days' rations in haversacks, to perform this duty.

An accomplished contraband cook in one of the messes went along with this expedition. Strict orders were given to perform the service quietly, and keep out of sight by daylight—while private property and live stock were not to be disturbed.

"And mind, now, boys," said the commander of the guard, fiercely, "no marauding, no foraging, no robbery—but permit nothing and nobody to pass the lines without giving the countersign."

Just after midnight, Sambo and his comrade, on picket duty, heard a soft step near them, suddenly.

"Halt!" shouted the picket—and "who go dar?" added the darkey cook.

But no answer came from the intruder.

"Halt!" repeated the guard.

"Vance, an' gib de countersine," insisted Sambo.

On came the party addressed, but without responding, amidst the darkness, when the contraband cook suddenly discovered the visitor to be a fine yearling calf—astray. The animal was just passing the lines without giving the countersign, when two bayonets were quietly passed through his lungs, and he became Sambo's prize.

The officers and men had a very nice veal breakfast off that capture, and the "calf's head and pluck," as served up for our use by the black cook, was the daintiest dish I ever put tooth into.

"Where did you get this veal?" demanded the officer of Sambo, in a stern manner.

"Ober dar, Cap'n, ober yander."

"Over where?"

"Up dar, 'n de swamp, Cap'n."

"Didn't I forbid your foraging strictly?"

"Yas, Cap'n, yer did. But yer tole us nuffin ner nobody muss be 'lowed to pass de lines 'cept dey gib de countersine. Dis feller try it on, wouldn't answer, wen we call him halt, an' so we jess run him troo, wid our bagnets, dass all."

The Captain "saw it," at once!

"How you like dem cutlets, Cap'n?" inquired Sambo, with a grin.

"Very good, very good, Sam," said the officer turning away with a smile.

And this is how we got our capital dish of "calf's head and pluck." You should try it once in camp.—Cor. Boston Transcript.

THE FUTURE OF GEN GRANT.—"The whole nation," says the editor of the Memphis Bulletin, "resounds with the praises of the hero of Donelson and Vicksburg; men of all parties and creeds vie with each other to do honor to him and his veteran army. But scarcely has the echo of the guns which proclaim his last great victory died away when there comes a report that it was, if it is not now, in contemplation to put him in command of the Army of the Potomac. He is certainly worthy of the highest honors the nation can bestow, but we are sure the people of the West and Southwest could not hear of such a design without solicitude. General Grant is their idol, and having been successful on every field they could not witness his transplantation to that latitude. Who that witnessed the great clamor in the Northern papers over what they affected to regard as Grant's 'tardiness' in taking Vicksburg, believes that the same organs would not cry even more lustily over his failure to take Richmond immediately, if not sooner? Besides, is not General Grant doing a good work in his present field? Has he not triumphed, sooner or later, over every foe, and is there not quite enough still to be done in his department? Is not Alabama, and particularly Mobile and Montgomery, to be captured? In a word, is there not enough work of the most important kind to be done in Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina? And who can do it better or sooner than the hero of Vicksburg. General Grant is the patriot General and the people's favorite, and the people of the West will protest against any scheme calculated to dim the luster of his name, which is already identified with the most brilliant achievements of the war."

An officer and a lawyer were talking of a disastrous battle, the former was lamenting the number of brave soldiers who fell on the occasion, when the lawyer observed that "those who live by the sword must expect to die by the sword." "By a similar rule," replied the officer, "those who live by the law must expect to die by the law."

A PEN PICTURE OF POOR PIERCE WELL DRAWN.—The following, from the Boston Transcript, of July 6, is a picture of the poor, snivelling ex President, that will live in history.

THE COPPERHEAD EX-PRESIDENT.—Amidst the rejoicings over victory, and against the sighs and sobs of thousands who have helped purchase victory by the costliest sacrifices, there comes in a weak, miserable, discordant voice, that would awaken indignation if it deserved anything but contempt. One who has been the nominal head of this, then united, prosperous, and powerful country, and whose fawning and sycophantic and short-sighted policy did as much as it could to encourage the arrogant assumptions and insolent demands of the slave power conspirators, comes forward at this tremendous crisis to renew the wretched subserviency, and to play the ignoble part of the spiteful and disappointed partisan.

He declaims the old platitudes. He rehashes the thread bare falsehoods. He rings the changes on the misrepresentations of the record of the past, and the facts of the present. Professing Democracy, he sympathizes with, and truckles to, the most unmitigated aristocracy that the world has ever known.—Pretending to be the friend of the people and of free institutions, his course is disgustingly inimical to the best interests of both. With an armed, desperate, and unprincipled domestic foe threatening the existence of the nation, with the best blood of New England flowing like water upon the battle field, this man has only words of vindictive censure for those who would defend the nation's integrity.

From the time of the assault on Sumter, he has been skulking in silence. The community has been listening in vain to catch from him a feeble whisper of manly loyalty and generous patriotism. While men of all shades of political opinion have forgotten their differences in devotion to the old Union and in the determination to save the land to freedom first and freedom always, he stood aloof. Now, when it happens to be safe, to play the demagogue with a factious clique of chronic haters of everything that is truly democratic, he emerges from his shirking privacy only to crown the failures of his public career with a sorry exhibition of recreancy to the claims of the hour.

It is not because of his former political relations that his present position is censurable. A majority of those who voted him into the Executive chair will join in that censure. His talk and attitude now are essentially traitorous—too plainly so for any of the pompous generalities of the partisan to conceal.—He misrepresents the American heart; he is false to Democratic principles and Democratic ideas, he is recreant to the spirit of the Constitution; he turns his back to all that makes the glory of a Republic, to cringe to the autocratic despotism of Southern slave holders. Thus he has added to the history of his imbecility as a ruler an appendix to tell the story of his delinquency as a citizen.

A financially embarrassed gentleman of our acquaintance calls a bill of exchange a boomerang, because, send it out in what direction you will, it is certain to come back to you.

"Sam, why don't you talk to massa and tell him to lay up treasures in heaven?"

"What for. What's de use laying up treasures dere, where he never see 'em again?"

HELMBOLD'S
Genuine Preparation.
'HIGHLY CONCENTRATED'
Compound Fluid
EXTRACT BUCHU.
A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL
AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCAREOUS depositions and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For Weakness arising from Excesses Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS.
Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power
Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves, Trembling,
Horror of Disease, Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,
Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin, Eruptions on the Face,
Pallid Countenance
These symptoms if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows
Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,
IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.
Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"
"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS
THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,
And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that THE CONSTITUTION,
once affected by Organic Weakness,
Requires the Aid of Medicine, to strengthen and invigorate the system, which
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
invariably does.
A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

FEMALES! FEMALES! FEMALES!
OLD OR YOUNG,
Single, Married or contemplating Marriage
IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO FEMALES, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy as in Chlorosis or Retention Irregularity Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations Ulcerated or Schirrus state of the Uterus Leucorrhœa or Whites Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the Sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the

CURES SECRET DISEASES,
In all their Stages; At Little Expense;
Little or no Change in Diet, No Inconvenience,
AND NO EXPOSURE
It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby Removing Obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of Diseases and expelling all Poisonous diseased and worn out matter
THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS
Who have been the victims of Quacks
and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu
For all Affections and Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and
NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING.
Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic.
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,
And it is certain to have the desired effect in Diseases for which it is recommended

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.
INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, a host of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.
Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.
Hoofland's German Bitters
Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.
The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent
CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS,
and
CITIZENS,
Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.
Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.
From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.
Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.
I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
PHILADELPHIA, June [illegible]
PARTICULAR NOTICE.
There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.
This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.
For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.
ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!
AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS
We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.
We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."
PHILADELPHIA, [illegible]
Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.
I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.
Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.
We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
